

BERKSHIRE ARCHAEOLOGICAL JOURNAL

The Berkshire Archaeological Journal records the archaeology and history of Berkshire and adjacent areas.

Volumes of the Journal are free to Society members; members of the public can purchase them from the Society. The latest volume of the Journal, volume 77, was produced in 2008.

The Society is currently planning future volumes.

Back copies of the Journal

The Berkshire Archaeological Society started publishing journals in 1878 and has now published over 80 volumes. These include:

Transactions of the Berkshire Archaeological and Architectural Society: five volumes were published from 1878 to 1883

Quarterly Journal of the Berkshire Archaeological and Architectural Society: three volumes, each with 8 parts, were published between 1889 and 1895

Berks. Buck and Oxon Archaeological Journal: 34 volumes were produced between 1895 and 1930

Berkshire Archaeological Journal: the first volume, number 35, was published in 1931 and they are still being published

You can download papers published in the journals up to Berkshire Archaeological Journal volume 70, published in 1980, free of charge from the Archaeology Data Service website at:

http://ads.ahds.ac.uk/catalogue/library/berks_bas_2007/

You can download papers from volumes of the Berkshire Archaeological Journal published after 1980 from ArchLib at:

Submitting papers for publication in the Berkshire Archaeological Journal

If you have been working on an archaeological site in and around Berkshire then we would be pleased to publish a paper describing what you have done. Submit papers for publication in the Berkshire Archaeological Journal by sending an electronic copy by email to the Society's website or posting a paper copy to the

Society's postal address : Dr Andrew Hutt, 19 Challenor Close, Wokingham, Berks, RG40 4UJ

If you could like details of the typographic conventions used in the publication of the Journal please click here:

<http://www.berksarch.co.uk/typcon.pdf>

If you would like to download a Microsoft Word template to help format your paper please click here : <http://www.berksarch.co.uk/template.pdf>

Journals for Sale

The Society has the following paper copies of the Berkshire Archaeological Journal for sale.

If you would like to buy a copy please send a letter detailing your requirements with a cheque payable to the Berkshire Archaeological Society to the Society's postal address (See contacting us)

Berkshire Archaeological Journals

Volume	Published	Price
Vol 77	2008	£10
Vol 76	2003	None available
Vol 75	2003	£5
Vol 74	1997	£5
Vol 73	1993	£5
Vol 72	1985	£5
Vol 71	1982	£5
Vol 70	1980	£5
Vol 69	1978	£5
Vol 68	1976	£5
Vol 67	1974	£5
Vol 66	1972	£5
Vol 65	1970	£5