

Berkshire Archaeological Society News Sheet

February 2015

Looking back January 2015

- David Roffe gave new insights into the Domesday Book through his recent translation, which will soon be found on line.
- The BAS Council met to discuss future plans for talks and fieldwork. Members ideas are always welcome.
- Anglo-Saxon Research Group

Looking forward February 2015

- 14th February. Alice Rogers brings to life the role of women in the Early Bronze Age at the BAS lecture this month. Coffee 2.00pm for a 2.30pm start.
- Visits to Berkshire Record Office.
- 4 February 2pm RISC Building. Anglo-Saxon Research.
- Fieldwork Plans for geophysics
Phone if you are interested.

Metal detectorists found more than 5,000 coins in a lead box near Padbury, Bucks. They revealed coins with heads of Ethelred the Unready (978 – 1016) and Canute (1016 – 1035).

Contact – email address

Email BAS Councillors with your ideas and requests for more information or phone 01628 825288

BAS Forthcoming Events

Summer Walks and Visits. We would welcome ideas for these from our members.

Spring Tour news. There are still a few places left for the four day visit in the Heart of England. 8 – 11 May.

Contact Ron Knowles 0118 939 4044

Try a new Museum visit each month – view the website

Maidenhead Heritage Centre

A little gem shows Maidenhead's story and the Air Transport Auxillary – Grandma flew spitfires exhibition. Come and and fly a spitfire simulator!

Research ... Record ... Relate