MAN, I HATE IT WHEN THE CLOCKS CHANGE!

Welcome to British Summer Time

A corny old joke I'm afraid. However, this month does mark a change in BAS schedules for the Spring and Summer.

- Finds Group and Study Group meetings will continue until June then break for the summer.
- Saturday lectures have now ended but will resume in September.
- Pub lunches will resume when we can fit them around the field projects.
- The BAS Day School will be on October 11th so put the date in your diaries.

Our main focus will be on field projects for the next 5 months, especially the excavation project at Wickham House. The first phase of excavation will take place during May 2025 to June 2025. Look out for a regular blog on our website.
