Wickham House excavations

We are making fantastic progress having discovered a Medieval building on top of the Roman road and exploring Roman period roadside occupation which together have yielded finds such as pottery, coins, a brooch, pins, animal bone, building material and evidence of metal/textile production.

There is a short talk and site visit on Thursday 5th June at 6pm. See below. You can follow its progress by reading the daily blog on our website and watching the videos on our YouTube channel

A reminder of our Summer programme:

- Finds Group meets in June but Study Group breaks for the summer.
• Saturday lectures have now ended but will resume in September.
• Pub lunches will resume when we can fit them around the field projects.
• The BAS Day School will be on October 11th so put the date in your diaries.

Upcoming Events
